

The
Historical Association
Bath Branch
2009/10 Programme

24 th September	“Cofia, Blentyn, Dwedd y Gwir”, Lloyd George and Economy with the Truth Professor Alan Sharp, University of Ulster
22 nd October	“Dogma, Discipline, Dancing”: Calvin and Calvinism after 400 years Dr. Kenneth Austin, University of Bristol
26 th November	Rethinking Henry VIII Professor George Bernard, University of Southampton
16 th December	Christmas Social Evening at BRLSI in Queen Square
28 th January	Elizabeth I and the Historians Professor Ronald Hutton, University of Bristol
25 th February	“The devils are walking about our streets”: the witchcraft delusion in seventeenth-century Salem Professor Richard Francis, Bath Spa University
25 th March	Michael Foot and History Professor Lord Morgan, Queens College, Oxford
22 nd April	Ancient mining on the Mendips and its wider implications Professor Malcolm Todd, University of Exeter

All meetings 7.30 pm Bath Society
Meeting Rooms, Green Park Station